York Telecom Leading Communications Revolution with Media Services Growth
Vision pays off with historic growth for Communications Company of the Year

EATONTOWN, NJ — York Telecom, recently honored as “Communications Company of the Year” by the New Jersey Technology Council (NJTC), has shattered its previous record for annual growth.

“2007 had been an amazing year of growth and transformation,” says Ron Gaboury, President and Chief Operating Officer, noting that York Telecom has achieved record growth across each of its business units. “It’s exciting to see the marketplace embrace the vision and initiatives that keep York Telecom at the forefront,” Gaboury adds.

“We are happy to see this growth across all segments of our business” stated Ken Scaturro, Senior Vice President of Global Sales and Business Development”. York Telecom is one of the few companies to successfully bridge the gap between integrator, managed services provider, content creator, broadcast producer and streaming media provider. Scaturro continued, “Our Media Services division has had the largest percentage of revenue increase, a testament to our vision of providing a comprehensive suite of services for all of our customers’ visual communications requirements”

The York Telecom Media Services business unit provides a full suite of professional media services from concept to completion, script to screen. York Telecom has hosted more than 3,500 streaming media web casts in the past 12 months alone, averaging 60 broadcasts each week. Its award-winning media services team has created and produced numerous national primetime public service announcements featuring celebrities such as NFL Super Bowl MVP Troy Aikman, and actors Brian Dennehy, Gary Sinise and Hill Harper. York Media Services has filmed on location in Europe, over 15 U.S. states, and broadcast more than 100 live news feeds for the national and global media.

Other notables who have appeared in York Media productions include President and Laura Bush, Robert Duval, Miss America, Sheryl Crow, Pat Sajak, Lynn Swann, Joe Theisman and Jimmy Buffett.
